The third piece of the peril pact is lost. Soon afterwards Trixie falls in the midst of her trapeze act with Landow. Darrell is attacked by two of Adams' henchmen and knocked out. The sand diviners, Natchi and the Mystery Man, plot to ensnare Adams.

At Natchi's suggestion he goes to a hotel. The three Hindus attack him and after a bitter battle they render him unconscious. The two parts of the peril pact are taken from him. They keep him a prisoner.

Little Bobby convalesces in the hotel. He sends his nurse to bring Trixie as he wants to give her the "trinket" he possesses--the precious ruby. Natchi hears about Bobby's prize and arrives first. He tells the child that he will bring it to Trixie. Natchi slips away without being detected.

One of Adams' loyal followers hears about Trixie's errand. He brings a gang with him to attack her and take away the Jewel. Landow also hears about the affair. Adams' gang are interrupted just as they attempt to batter in the inner door.

In the scuffle, one of them throws a lamp against the wall. The furnishings in the room are soon ablaze. Landow battles his adversaries to a standstill. The cowards then take to their heels when things become too hot for them. Smashing his way through a blazing door, Landow reaches Trixie and little Bobby. The three fall, overcome by the smoke and heat.
